

HELPING THEM FIND THEIR PASSION

Ken Purcell | UNION 314 | 12:00 – 1:00

TEXAS---horses, cattle, football and Fox Sports. Coach Ken Purcell has lived it all! After spending 41 years in Texas High School Football, he retired with "12 State Championship Rings"! Be prepared to be motivated as he shares the "basic principles" behind all of those "Championships"!

Conference Website & Surveys

Visit our webpage!

<http://www.ntxccc.org/events/university-counselor-advisor-network-conference>

Scan this code for the individual session survey

(www.tinyurl.com/emergesessions)

Scan this code for the overall conference survey

(www.tinyurl.com/ucanconference)

EMERGE Transforming your skill set

University Counselor Advisor Network Presents the 2018 Advisor Conference

May 24, 2018

9:00 - 4:00

8:00 - 9:00	Registration & Breakfast
9:00-9:15	Welcome
9:30-10:20	Concurrent Sessions 1
10:30-11:20	Concurrent Sessions 2
11:30-1:30	Lunch & Keynote Speaker
1:40-2:30	Concurrent Sessions 3
2:40-3:30	Concurrent Sessions 4
3:40-4:00	Closing & Giveaways

Get advised.

Concurrent Sessions, UNION 381

MAJOR EXPLORERS: THE ART OF ADVISING UNDECIDED FRESHMAN

PHILIP AGUINAGA, KATIE KROH, KRISTIN RINGE, MISSY EENIGENBURG,
JOHN BELLON, JOEL JACKSON | 9:30-10:20

Come and hear about the different types of freshmen undecided students, how UNT is addressing their concerns and see what resources we use to work with this special group of students.

CANCELLED

IF YOU KNEW BETTER YOU WOULD DO BETTER

MARDREANA REED | UNT HEALTH PROFESSIONS | 1:40-2:30

Assessing health professional education; how to adequately prepare students for their journey to graduate school.

UNT COLLEGE OF EDUCATION: TEACHING AND MORE!

NOLA MOUDRY, PHILIPPE BECERRA, JOHN BELLON, RENEE FOSTER, GWENN PASCO | 2:40-3:30

The discussion will include the variety of majors available, and suggestions to aid in a smooth transition for students who want to transfer.

Concurrent Sessions, UNION 382B

INITIATIVES FOR STUDENT SUCCESS: RESIDENCE LIFE AT UNT

LINDSEY FIELDS | UNT HOUSING | 9:30-10:20

Learn more about the student experience, organizational structure, programs and targeted initiatives in on-campus housing at UNT. We hope you will gain ideas on how you can get more connected with our residents.

SAY WHAT? BEST PRACTICES FOR ADVISING ESL STUDENTS & FAMILIES

SARAH ROMACK | UNT COLLEGE OF SCIENCE | 10:30-11:20

Ensure that prospective and current students/families feel confident as they navigate their college experience by utilizing these practical, effective tools with speakers of other languages.

DEFINING YOUR PERSONAL ADVISING PHILOSOPHY IN THREE LITTLE WORDS

ANA WHITE | UNT COLLEGE OF MUSIC | 1:40-2:30

Participants will begin to formulate their own personal guiding philosophy of advising.

"ICEBERG, DEAD AHEAD!" ALTERNATIVE PLANS FOR DROWNING AND RELUCTANT STUDENTS

TODD LANG | UNT HEALTH PROFESSIONS | 2:40-3:30

This seminar will teach advisors how to counsel students who are not competitive for their future career goals. Advisors will come away with a lens through which to view the student, and how to create solutions with such lens.

Concurrent Sessions, UNION 385

EMERGE: GUIDELINES FOR ADVISORS OF PRE-HEALTH PROFESSIONS STUDENTS

DEBRAH BECK | UNT HEALTH PROFESSIONS | 9:30-10:20

The goal of this presentation is to inform advisors of pre-health professions students of ways to help students reach their goals of being a good applicant to medical, dental and other professional schools.

SAP AND STUDENT SUCCESS: KNOW YOUR ROLE

TIFFANY O'NEAL, DENA GUZEMAN-TORRES, PAYTON BIRLEW
UNT FINANCIAL AID & SCHOLARSHIPS | 10:30-11:20

We will review procedures of Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) needed for academic advisors to best support students, improve advisor understanding of the role SAP plays in student retention efforts, and its effect on transfer students.

BEYOND THE MAJOR: PARTNERING WITH CAREER ADVISING AND GETTING STUDENTS TO FOCUS ON MARKETABLE SKILLS

TARA LEWIS, NORA HERNANDEZ | UT DALLAS | 1:40-2:30

This session will explore how to translate what students are learning into marketable skills, how to approach common student academic/career issues, and ways to partner to engage students.

KNOWING YOUR STUDENTS; MAKING GREAT REFERRALS TO MULTI-DISCIPLINARY MAJORS

SUSAN MCCUTCHEON, SHERRY GRANT, LAURIE CARROLL | UNT CLASS | 2:40-3:30

When it comes to multi-disciplinary majors (like Integrative Studies or Social Science) what skills help you make encouraging & empowering referrals to students who need a flexible major?

Concurrent Sessions, UNION 314 (Ballroom)

BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS THROUGH EMPATHY

COURTNEY JAIMES, DESIRE DEMANGE | NORTH TEXAS CENTRAL COLLEGE | 9:30-10:20

When confronted with challenging students, we can get derailed by quick judgments and perceptions. Learn to strengthen interactions through empathy to better assess and navigate challenging situations.

STUDENT SELF-ASSESSMENTS: A BRIDGE TO DEVELOPING GROWTH MINDSET

CHRISTINA GOTTARDI, MACKENZIE REITER | NORTH TEXAS CENTRAL COLLEGE | 10:30-11:20

Empower students to be proactive through self-assessments! Come learn how to navigate conversations focused on identifying a student's strengths and opportunities for improvement.

ADVISING TRAUMA: CREATING MORE TRIUMPH AND LESS TRIGGERING

TICILY MEDLEY | TARRANT COUNTY COLLEGE | 1:40-2:30

Some advising processes have a traumatic impact on students. This session will explore the trauma of advising and examine processes that involve less triggering and more academic success.

PROACTIVE COACHING MODEL TO INCREASE STUDENT RETENTION

REBEKAH SANCHEZ, SUSAN SVANE, MARIA VILLAMATER | NORTH TEXAS CENTRAL COLLEGE | 2:40-3:30

Student-coach mentors will role-play the difference between routine advising sessions and coaching sessions, highlighting distinctions throughout and providing tools for audience members to immediately implement.