"Signature Work"

Dr. Larry King, Chair, LEAP Texas

In this address, King examines the following: What is signature work? Why should we use signature work? How has signature work been used? What are the advantages of signature work? What are the challenges of signature work? How do we get started?

10:15am-10:30am Break

Signature Work: Continuing the Conversation

Room: TRTR 4008 Energy Auditorium
Larry King, Chair, LEAP Texas

Continue the conversation on signature work in this open forum Q&A session.

Cultivating 21st Century Skills through Active Learning
Room: TRTR 4102 Connect
Paige McMinn, Instructor of Speech Communications, Tarrant County College South Campus/ALA Faculty Facilitator; and Tisha Lackey, Instructor of Speech Communications, Tarrant County College Southeast Campus

Tarrant County College in Fort Worth, TX has implemented a cohort-based professional development program called the Active Learning Academy. This multi-disciplinary academy brings faculty together from across the college to discuss and practice integrative and interactive teaching strategies which increase student engagement and promote the development of 21st Century skills.

Use of ePortfolios for Assessment

Room: TRTR 4030 Win
Meena Naik, University of North Texas

UNT's QEP included implementation of a university-wide ePortfolio to track evidence, collect assessment data, and encourage rigorous experiential and service-learning opportunities. This session will discuss the evolution of this vision to subsume ePortfolios as a standalone HIP within a broader assessment framework using digital badges and pathways.

Developing Online Assessments

Room: TRTR 4207 Speed
Cristina Sullivan, Dean of Academic Affairs, TCC Connect Campus; with David Denny, eLearning Instructional Designer, TCC Connect Campus

During this session we will cover the various tools that can be utilized and the guidelines considered when creating an assessment. Choosing the right tool is key in evaluating the right set of learning objectives. Whether you teach online or face-to-face the technology tools regarding assessment covered in this session can prove to be valuable.

State of Institutional Learning Outcomes at TCC

Room: TRTR 4008 Energy Auditorium
Marlon Mote, District Director of Institutional Effectiveness, Accreditation, and Planning; Tramaine Anderson, Assistant Director of Instructional Assessment; and Maureen Hockenberger, Instructor of Sociology, Tarrant County College

This session is a review of TCCD's Institutional Student Learning Outcomes (ISLOs) and the ISLOs that have been assessed within the past year. In addition, the session will focus on some of the changes that have happened with Instructional Assessment, such as the new process for Program Review. Participants will be guided through a portion that focuses on questions about student learning data. The final part of the session will ask participants to interact with the data and discuss within a collaborative unit on next steps for instructional assessment. This session is specifically for TCC faculty and staff.

Career & Technical Education Assessment
Room: TRTR 4207 Speed
Chris Daley, Coordinator of Institutional Research, Trinity Valley Community College

Courses and programs need to be assessed, but how do we get started? Assessment is like making a pie. We need to know what we want to accomplish and define our plan, or recipe, to meet our needs. This presentation will break down the assessment recipe. No rolling pin required.

Continuing Education Assessment

Room: TRTR 4030 Win
Jessica Carlile, Dean of Adult and Continuing Education, and Maggie Row, Dean of Instructional Assessment, North Central Texas College

The presenters will discuss the history of assessment in Continuing Education and the challenges that arose. The presenters also discuss the plan to change the process and attitude, address alignment concerns with other areas of instruction, and help the changes stick.

Co-Curricular Assessment

Room: TRTR 4102 Connect
Tracey Robinson, Director, Library Services, TCC-SE

Co-curricular assessment can seem almost impossible. Learn how a director of library services engaged stakeholders and structured evaluation plans.

Afternoon General Session
12:30pm-3:30pm

12:30pm-1:40pm   Lunch (TRTR 4202 Action A)

1:40pm-1:45pm   Introduction of the Keynote Speaker

Marlon Mote, District Director of Institutional Effectiveness, Accreditation, and Planning, Tarrant County College District

1:45pm-2:45pm   Keynote Address

"SACSCOC Requirements and Reporting for 8.2a, Student Outcomes: Educational Programs"

Karen Mongo, Executive Director of Planning, Research, and Institutional Effectiveness, North Lake College

This session is designed to serve as an outline and resource for developing, writing, and reporting of the SACSCOC standard, 8.2.a. After reviewing the standard, specific examples will be provided with a focus on Use of Results and Seeking Improvement based on Analysis of the Results.

2:45pm-3:30pm   Q&A/Wrap-Up

Marlon Mote, District Director of Institutional Effectiveness, Accreditation, and Planning, Tarrant County College District; and Tramaine Anderson, Assistant Director of Instructional Assessment, Tarrant County College District
