McDonald's Corporation Training to
Hospitality Management: Restaurant Management Certificate Level 1
Guided Pathway
Effective for the 2017-2018 Catalog

Credit for Prior Learning

Credit for prior learning is granted for successful completion of the McDonald's Corporation training listed in the left column below. College credit granted through credit for prior learning is posted to the transcript after the student has enrolled at the college. Additional information can be found at http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/prior-learning-assessment/.

McDonald's Corporation Training Completed	Houston Community College Course Credit for Prior Learning Granted
ServSafe Managers Certification Course and Food Safety for Shift Leaders Employee must pass National Restaurant Association ServSafe Managers Exam and pass course. Successful completion must be verified by McDonald's.	CHEF 1205 – Sanitation and Safety
Department Manager Guest Service, People and Kitchen Curriculum Successful completion must be verified by McDonald's.	HAMG 1324 – Hospitality Human Resources Management
Shift Leadership Program Curriculum Successful completion must be verified by McDonald's.	HAMG 1166 – Practicum (or Field Experience) – Hospitality Administration/Management, General – Capstone Course

Additional Houston Community College Coursework

In addition to earning McDonald's training program certification, a student may choose to complete the coursework listed below at Houston Community College to earn a workforce certificate.

Houston Community College Additional Certificate Coursework Required
HAMG 1321 – Introduction to Hospitality Industry
RSTO 2301—Principals of Food and Beverage Controls
BMGT 1327—Principals of Management
CHEF 1313—Food Service Operation/Systems
ACNT 1303—Introduction to Accounting 1
CHEF 1471—Principals of Food Preparation for Hospitality

http://www.hccs.edu/finder/programs/hospitality-management---restaurant-management-certificate-level-1/

Hospitality Management: Restaurant Management Certificate Level 1