

McDonald's Corporation Training to Artisan Breads & Specialty Desserts
Guided Pathway
Effective for the 2018-2019 Catalog

Credit for Prior Learning

Credit for prior learning is granted for successful completion of the McDonald's Corporation training listed in the left column below. College credit granted through credit for prior learning is posted to the transcript after the student has enrolled at the college and completes 6 hours.

McDonald's Corporation Training Completed	St. Philip's College Course Credit for Prior Learning Granted
ServSafe Managers Certification Course and Food Safety for Shift Leaders Employee must pass National Restaurant Association ServSafe Managers Exam and pass course. Successful completion must be verified by McDonald's.	CHEF 1205 – Sanitation and Safety
Department Manager Guest Service, People and Kitchen Curriculum Successful completion must be verified by McDonald's.
Shift Leadership Program Curriculum Successful completion must be verified by McDonald's.

Additional St. Philip's College Coursework

In addition to earning McDonald's training program certification, a student may choose to complete the coursework listed below at St. Philip's College to earn a workforce certificate.

St. Philip's College Additional Certificate Coursework Required
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CHEF 1301 - Basic Food Preparation • FDNS 1301 - Introduction to Foods • RSTO 2301 – Principles of Food & Beverage Controls • PSTR 1301 – Fundamentals of Baking • PSTR 1305 – Breads and Rolls • PSTR 1310 – Pies, Tarts, Teacakes and Cookies

Level 1 Certificate: Artisan Breads & Specialty Desserts

For questions about the college portion of this pathway, Contact the Tourism, Hospitality and Culinary Arts Office at (210) 486-2313 or wthornton@alamo.edu.